

GoLife200

SCOPE & SEQUENCE

SCOPE:

The purpose of the GoLife200 course is to train students in the foundational concepts of strategic thinking and living. Major curriculum themes include embracing God's sovereignty, the importance of community, strategic lifestyle, seeing problems as opportunities, and engaging the culture. The course will challenge students with the lifestyle and disciplines required to become a successful spiritual leader and the vision to advance the Kingdom of God on the earth.

GoCitizen Reading Assignments:

- Amusing Ourselves to Death: Public Discourse in the Age of Show Business: This enduring book by Neil Postman challenges readers to consider themselves, the culture, and the degree to which the mass media works against their ability to think and dig into real issues.
- On the Destiny of Nations: Resolving Our Economic Crisis: In this thought-provoking book, Dennis Peacocke explores the spiritual, moral, and practical foundations needed to address the economic challenges facing modern society. His approach emphasizes the alignment of economic principles with biblical values to create lasting societal change and prosperity.
- Articles & Excerpts: A curated collection of readings from various authors and resources with themes corresponding to the lessons.
